

Hamburg is Germany's gateway to the world- Bucerius could be yours!

Bucerius Law School's internationally renowned faculty, innovative focus on transnational and comparative business law and high academic standards have led it to become one of Germany's top law schools.

Our intensive, English-taught Bucerius Summer Programs prepare law students and recent graduates to excel in two of the most important fields in the legal profession today:

International Business Law, July 22 – August 17, 2012

- Tailored to your needs, with courses ranging from international commercial sales to corporate governance to international mergers and acquisitions.
- Taught by renowned international academics and practitioners.
- Proven success since 2008!

Mediation, July 22 – August 10, 2012

- A hands-on approach to mediation, taught by professors, legal practitioners and professional mediators.
- This year's focus on "Business to Business Mediation," including conflict management, advocacy, effective representation, psychology and more!

Application deadline: April 30, 2012

Website: <http://www.law-school.de/summerprogram.html?&L=1>

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Bucerius-Summer-Programs/292113534152438>

Contact: Chipley Bader – chipley.bader@law-school.de